Metonymy or Synecdoche? - Herr 8th ELA

Name: _______________________________________________ Class: ___________________

Use the letters of M or S to identify each sentence.

_____ 1. Sweden today reports a dire shortage of lutefisk.
_____ 2. When I am done with this article, I plan to hit the bottle.
_____ 3. Bow to my flourishing, dubious crown.
_____ 4. There are over fifty head of cattle in that strange and wild herd.
_____ 5. Immediately after the robbery, the law arrived at the scene of the crime.
_____ 6. The pen is mightier than the sword.
_____ 7. Kiara ended up getting a fancy set of wheels for her birthday.
_____ 8. The hired hands roped two mustangs on our ranch yesterday.
_____ 9. If you liked it then you should have put a ring on it.
_____ 10. When the bell rings, you’d better get your rear end to Mrs. Dennington’s.

Applying metonymy and synecdoche:

Create two new sentences, one for metonymy and one for synecdoche.

11. _____________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________________

12. _____________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________________________________